SEASON'S GREETINGS FROM PALISADES CENTER

WEST NYACK, N.Y.: All weekend long, Palisades Center will host a variety of holiday-themed events for the whole family! Guests are encouraged to visit the American Cancer Society, Community Blood Services, and local performance groups as they continue, or “wrap-up,” their holiday shopping!

Returning to Palisades Center for their sixth annual concert, Ekkquinox Steel Pan Drums are back for not one, but two performances! The first performance of “Christmas Rocks with Ekkquinox” will take place on Level One near Best Buy on Saturday, December 15th starting at 12:00 p.m.

In addition to starting at noon, Palisades Center will host a blood drive with Community Blood Services. Community Blood Services strives to inspire hope in the communities they serve by offering an evolutionary approach to cellular therapy and transfusion services for the healthcare industry. The blood mobile will be located within Parking Lot F near The Cheesecake Factory. Registration is requested, but walk-ins are welcomed. To register, please visit <https://bit.ly/2K7emvk>.

The Pulse Performing Studio for Nova Jazz will return to the center for an afternoon of holiday entertainment within the Lord & Taylor Court on Sunday, December 16th. The dance troupe will be onsite from 3:00 to 5:00 p.m.

During this Season of Giving, Palisades Center is honored to host local non-profit organizations this holiday season, including Rockland Parent Aid Fund and the Giving Tree, the Center for Safety & Change, Hi Tor Animal Center, American Cancer Society, and many more. Please visit www.palisadescenter.com for a full list of organizations the center is supporting this season. For more information on campaign dates, please visit our events page.
