THE BINGHAMTON CROSBYS RETURN TO PERFORM AT PALISADES CENTER

WEST NYACK, N.Y.: For two nights only, The Binghamton Crosbys will return for a 45-minute performance within the ThEATery Court singing acapella classics!

The Binghamton Crosbys, founded in 1983, are the only all-male a cappella group at Binghamton University. For over thirty-five years, the Crosbys have been the university's premier a cappella performance group, showcasing their talents every year in their Fall and Spring Jamborees. The group holds auditions at the beginning of each semester and has an established alumni base of over 150 artists, professionals and educators. The Crosbys have more than fifteen recorded albums. The Crosbys are five-time ICCA Finalists, winning the Championship in 2003 with songs "Jukebox Hero," "Mama," and "Just a Gigolo."
