JELLIO WORLD TO OPEN FLAGSHIP LOCATION AT PALISADES CENTER

WEST NYACK, N.Y. (December 2021): Ever wanted to have your picture taken on a gigantic birthday cake? How about striking a pose as a mermaid under the sea, or maybe just hanging out with some giant gummy bears? Now you can, because Jellio World...the Ultimate Selfie Funhouse will be opening at Palisades Center this month on Level Three!

Jellio World will be the area's first interactive photography studio, specializing in photo and video opportunities inspired by childhood memories and imagination, perfect for all social media applications. Jellio World will have over 20 unique rooms and walls, suitable for selfie photography or video.

"It's a collection of interactive environments inspired by childhood memories and imagination," said Eric Winston and Dawid Bociek, Co-Owners of Jellio World. "We combine art and creativity with universal childhood experiences to create a playful and nostalgic setting for all ages."

"It's an honor Jellio World chose Palisades Center to launch their first selfie studio," said Darrin Houseman, General Manager of Palisades Center. "This retail trend has spread worldwide and now Palisades Center's guests will have the opportunity to participate in this new entertainment experience.”

Jellio World will also be available for private events, from birthday and school parties to private photography sessions and even corporate team-building events. The Jellio World space offers a one-of-a-kind opportunity for party and event planners to create a truly unique occasion, with lasting memories, and of course...great photos!

And for all media outlets, Jellio World is the perfect setting for great video capture to show off your talent's playful side. Whether it's riding in a hot air balloon or fighting off a great white shark, your correspondents will have the time of their lives recreating great photo and video moments for their audiences.

So come take a stroll down memory lane...because at Jellio World, it's cool to be a kid, again!
