PALISADES CENTER WELCOMES DUTCH HIGH SCHOOL BAND, MEANDER BIG BAND, FOR SPECIAL PERFORMANCE ON APRIL 28

WEST NYACK, N.Y. (April 2024): Palisades Center is thrilled to announce the upcoming performance of the renowned Dutch High School Big Band, Meander Big Band, on Sunday, April 28, 2024, at 3:00 PM. The performance will be on Level One in the East Court next to H&M.

The Meander Big Band, hailing from Zwolle, The Netherlands, is embarking on a 10-day Grand Tour to the United States, with concerts scheduled in New York, Philadelphia, and Washington DC. This tour marks the band's latest international endeavor, having previously performed in prestigious venues worldwide, including Boston, Shanghai, and South Africa.

Meander Big Band is celebrated for its dynamic performances and eclectic repertoire, spanning from swing classics to contemporary hits. With a lineup of 36 talented students aged 14 to 18, led by bandleader Albert Dam, the band promises an unforgettable musical experience for audiences of all ages.

"We are honored to host Meander Big Band at Palisades Center and delighted to be a part of their Grand Tour experience," said Darrin Houseman, General Manager of Palisades Center.

"We invite our guests to enjoy their high-energy performance and the vibrant atmosphere they bring."

In addition to their performance at Palisades Center, Meander Big Band will showcase its talent at various locations throughout the East Coast, including the All City Jazz Festival in Philadelphia, PA.

Admission to the performance is free for all guests.
